

The Unveiling |

and confusion
potential as human beings. |

From a young age we learn to see the world from a very narrow values as human beings, and from seeing the These thought patterns are deeply ingrained in the way that we

These patterns of thinking also cause us to see from our communities, creating an egocentric core value system in which we are not working together to empower the community as a is in limited supply, therefore, in order to succeed we must compete against one another to get to the top.

work together to empower one another in a society in which we all developed by a worldwide organization Illuminati, or whatever high council name you may have heard. | because it allows for information to be placed into our collective reality with no regard for truth or objectivity. In other words,

...e the freedom to speak freely, but this leaves room for manipulation. The conditioning goes so deep into the way that our conglomerates have created a vision of how society experiences infrastructure that supports it.

Energy generates into our reality in a collection of individual, deeply connected, Free will is our of the universe.

...into social classes, reality, all human beings are connected to one another. created to separate ourselves from one another.

We have been conditioned from a very young age, especially in the -working are judged and categorized. By the time we reach high school, most throughout the school systems. The real question is: how do we continue to place these values on our community members and allow them to dictate the way we treat each other?

in our heritage and beliefs,

, sports

category that is judged through their actions and their appearance.

worse.

We are now going to break down how our society influences and

We are all a part and, therefore,

In order to create collective change, we must step outside of our comfort zones. To step outside of our comfort zones, we must chisel away at our fear the steps that must be taken in order outside of what is commonly accepted as the societal norm.

comfort zones will have no choice but to break. The program that focus outside of ourselves, because in truth, the main focus is ourselves.

outside influences to continue to dictate who we are and who we become.

We must learn to cultivate relationships that we choose through self- and working with the laws universe.

reflection is a huge medium through which we can begin to selves, untainted by these our own values and see the value in all human beings on this planet.