

SOLUTIONARIES

You Are the Answer!

Solutionaries* is for the person who hungers to make a difference in the world, but doesn't know how.

Many people want solutions for the issues facing the world today. Yet most get stuck trying to understand how they can make things better or where to focus their efforts.

These include Baby Boomers wishing they could leave a legacy, Millennials unsure where they want to work but clear that it needs to be with conscious companies, women re-entering the workforce uncertain about their skills and talents, and others who have a desire to serve and leave a positive impact through their work and volunteer efforts.

Solutionaries takes you through a process whereby you:

- Discover the talents, gifts and tools that make you uniquely qualified to lead.
- Present your distinct value proposition to the world with intention.
- Identify compelling issues that drive you to serve and make a difference.
- Find and join your tribe of likeminded “Solutionaries” and changemakers.
- Create an action plan for a life that meets both your financial and emotional needs.
- And more!
